

Lori Randall is a former Mrs. Oklahoma and Mrs. Christian World. She has been using her titles for the past several years, to promote better self image and stronger relationships with organizations, associations, churches, and businesses. Lori has spoken and sang for thousands of people across the U.S. and been interviewed for several television, magazine and radio programs. She has also authored two books and produced several inspirational CDs and DVDs.

She resides in Meeker, Oklahoma with her husband Carl and two children Rachel and Luke.

Being a wife, mother and business woman has taught Lori to deal with all sorts of people. As you will see, it was life's everyday relationships and misunderstandings that moved Lori to want to share...What Shoe Are You?
